Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can lose over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEDGER, Telephone 33, and send it in.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

PROPRIETORS BEE HIVE.

SHE NEVER WAS A BOY.

When I come home, the other night
With an ugly lookin' eye
That I got into a fight,
Poor ma commenced to cry:
But when I told pa how it was,
He clapped his hand with joy,
And told me I done bully, 'cause
Once he had been a boy.

"Boys will be boys," I heard him say,
'They won't be otherwise;
And the one that learns to fight his way
Is the one that wins the prize;
When I was his age, fightin' was
My greatest earthly joy—
But ma she kept on cryin', 'cause
She never was a boy.

By golly, but I'd hate to be
A girl with fluffy hair,
And always prim as A, B, C,
With clothes too clean to wear!
When ma was small I s'pose she was
Red-cheeked and sweet and coy—
But, oh, the fun that missed her, 'cause
She never was a boy!

Misses Lillian and Margaret Burrows entertained the Century Club last afternoon at their hospitable home on Forest avenue, Fifth Ward. About fifteen of the members were present, the balance being absent because of grip. It was a very pretty party, managed with that skill and charm which has true hospitality for its hand maiden. The parlors were lighted by candles and lamps, the cheerful glowing of a burning fire, the greens of ferns and palms making a most effective bower. The girls revelled in the pleasure of conversation and the delights of refreshing themselves with ices and cakes. It was a rare pleasure to be at the Burrows home.

Lexington Policemen Have Sense Enough to Keep Out of the Rain.

Here is one on the Maysville Policemen which The Lexington Leader gives away.

In Thursday's issue it says: "The Chief of Police of Maysville has written a letter to Chief of Police Leese of this city inquiring as to the style of rain coats worn by the members of the local Police Department. Judge Riley suggested to the Chief to reply that at Lexington Policemen did not wear rain coats, as they had sense enough to know when to get in out of the rain and keep dry."

Thanks; so does the Maysville force.

We wish to draw your attention particularly to our $1.25 and $4 Blankets. They will save you silver and shivers.

Hosiery For Men and Women!
